

Harry & Reba Huge Foundation

Reba Huge

Mrs. Huge is co-founder and Vice Chair of the Harry and Reba Huge Foundation. A licensed real estate broker, Mrs. Huge is active in numerous civic organizations in the Charleston, South Carolina area, including the Board of Directors of the South Carolina Aquarium, the Arts Council at the College of Charleston, the Board of the Charleston Art and Antiques Forum, the Board of the Spoleto Festival USA (1991-1996), and the Board of the Florence Crittenton Programs of South Carolina (1996-2002).

Mrs. Huge's other civic involvement includes serving as a member of the ad hoc committee to form the Women's Commission of Northern Virginia, as the first woman chair of the Alexandria, Virginia Health Department, and as an officer in the League of Women Voters.

Mrs. Huge graduated from the University of Nebraska, Lincoln, where she took a Bachelors of Music in Education. While at UNL, Mrs. Huge was involved in a number of organizations, including Kappa Chapter Chi Omega (President), the University's symphonic band, Sigma Alpha Lota, and AWS. She was also elected Cornhusker Year Book beauty queen and Miss Nebraska Press Photographer.

Upon graduating from the University of Nebraska, Mrs. Huge taught junior high in Denver and high school in Prince Georges County, MD. She subsequently served on Capital Hill, first in the office of Senator Jacob Javits of New York and then in the office of Congressman Roman C. Puchinski of Chicago.

Mrs. Huge is originally from Sidney, Nebraska, where she graduated from high school with honors and was awarded a Regents scholarship.